

OLD DUTCH MARKET TO OPEN NEW STORE

The Old Dutch Market Company will open a new branch store at Twentieth and F streets northwest, near Dupont circle, Saturday. The store will be housed in the building formerly occupied by the Walker-Hughes Market Co., which conducted business on this site for more than thirty-five years.

The new store will be completely stocked with a supply of the goods sold by the chain of grocery establishments throughout Washington, including fresh and smoked meats, fresh and smoked fish, staple and fancy groceries, fruits and vegetables, dairy products, "Old Dutch" bread, rolls, buns, cakes and pastries.

Caroline B. King, head of the bureau of domestic science of the grocery company, will be at the store Saturday from 10 o'clock in the morning until noon, and from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. She has stated that she will give advice to prospective customers concerning the purchase and preparation of food.

A feature of the new store will be a bakery installed in the building. The bakery will be in full view of the street, and will be open to inspection at all times. Closing hours for the store will be 6 o'clock, beginning October 18.

News of the Diplomats and of Official Society—Several Informal Dinners on Program—Weddings and Engagements

BARONNESS DE CARTIER DE MARCHIENNE, wife of the Belgian ambassador, is expected back in Washington on Saturday after making a visit in New York, where she was extensively feted, and spending a few days in Beacon, N. Y. The ambassador is in California with King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, and the date of his return is uncertain.

Mrs. Wilson took an automobile ride yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her mother and sister, Mrs. William E. Bolling and Miss Bertha Bolling. It was the first time Mrs. Wilson has left the White House since the President was taken ill.

The delegates to the industrial conference were entertained at luncheon today in the Pan American Building Annex with Secretary Lane, chairman of the conference, and John Barrett, Director General of the Pan American Union, as joint hosts.

The American Ambassador to Mexico and Mrs. Henry P. Fletcher entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Sir William Tyrrell, of the British embassy, who came over with the new ambassador, Viscount Grey. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher have recently taken a house in Edgemoor.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane were the honor guests at dinner last evening of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Story, of the Cafe St. Marks. The other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wheeler.

Jonkheer W. H. de Beaufort, counselor of the Netherlands legation, and the members of the legation staff will return to Washington on Tuesday from Manchester, Mass. The Minister and Mme. Cremer are not expected in Washington until later in the autumn.

Return to New York.
The Marquis and Marchioness of Butte and their children, the Earl of Dumfries and Lady Mary Chrichton-Stuart, who have been in Washington, have returned to New York and are at the Plaza Hotel.

The Misses Laura and Ruth Harlan, daughters of the late Justice Harlan, will occupy their residence, 1207 Nineteenth street, which has been sublet, this winter and will take possession shortly.

Abbott Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University, and Mrs. Lowell have arrived in Washington, and are staying at the Willard Hotel.

The officers and ladies of the Officers' Club of Washington will give a reception tonight at the club in honor of Surgeon General and Mrs. Merritt W. Ireland and the officers of General Ireland's department, both active and retired, with the ladies of their families. The surgeon general's department includes the medical corps and the veterinary, dental and sanitary corps.

The reception will be held from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Chew, of Washington, have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Chew Bell, to William Miller Davis, of Kingston and Providence, R. I., on Saturday at noon in Jamestown, R. I. Rear Admiral and Mrs. Seaton Schroeder have loaned their summer home at Jamestown for the reception which will follow the ceremony.

It will be remembered that something over nine years ago the bride of next Saturday married the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell—Gardner Hubbard Bell—his death taking place a short time after. Young Mrs. Bell has since been very active in welfare work, and also spent last year in France, serving under the Red Cross.

Miss Arwell Weds.

The marriage of Miss Corinne Aswell, daughter of Congressmen Aswell and Mrs. Aswell, of Louisiana, and James E. Cantrill, son of Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill of Kentucky, was solemnized at noon today. The wedding took place in Mr. and Mrs. Aswell's apartment in the Northumberland, and was attended by a little company of relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom, and by members of the Louisiana and Kentucky delegations in Congress.

The Rev. Dr. Earle Wilsey performed the ceremony, and the bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by her father. She wore her traveling costume, a chic and becoming suit of dark blue velvet trimmed with blue fox fur. Her hat was of blue velvet, trimmed with ostrich tips, and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley completed her costume. Charles Roberts, of Frankfort, Ky., was best man and Mrs. Whelan Stone played the wedding music. The apartment was decorated with cut flowers in a color scheme of pink and white.

The service was followed by a buffet breakfast. Mrs. Aswell, who was handsomely gowned in blue velvet with a corsage bouquet of violets, was assisted by Mrs. Joseph E. Randall, wife of Dr. Randall, of Louisiana; Mrs. Ladias Lazaro and Mrs. Allen W. Barkley, Congressmen and Mrs. Cantrill were present at the ceremony.

On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Cantrill will reside in Washington.

Brown will return to Canada. Colonel Brown's leave of absence in the States is shortened by the fact that he is obliged to return to Canada before the Prince of Wales concludes his visit there, as with a number of other officers, Colonel Brown will be decorated with the distinguished service medal by the prince.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Virginia Pairo, and Turner Clayton Thompson, of Washington, will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pairo, in Rhode Island avenue, and will be followed by an informal reception. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock by the Right Rev. John T. Whelan, of St. Mary's Star of the Sea, who will be assisted by the Rev. Father C. M. Bart, of Anacostia, and Father Eugene Hansen, of St. Martin's Church.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white beaded georgette, made short, and her tulle veil will be arranged coronet fashion with a real lace handkerchief being used to form the cap. Orange blossoms will hold the cap in place.

She will carry a shower bouquet of Bride Roses and pink snapdragons. Miss Mina Pairo, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Miss May Woods, of Richmond, will be bridesmaid. They will be dressed alike in pale pink georgette, beaded, and will wear gold slippers and stockings. They will carry arm bouquets of pink snapdragons and yellow dahlias.

Dr. A. B. Grafe will be best man for Mr. Thompson. There are to be a number of out-of-town guests here for the wedding, among them Miss R. C. Korn, of New York, an aunt of the bride.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. Thompson will make their home in Washington, at Twentieth and I streets.

A quantity of palms, ferns, and amaranth and white dahlias will be used as decorations in the house.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Lily M. Bassett and Harold Spencer Bird, of Lansing, Mich.

Miss Bassett is director of the Junior Red Cross, Potomac Division, and is widely known in Washington as well as in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

Ever since October, 1917, when she volunteered her services to the New York Inter-Collegiate Bureau of Occupation for war work and was appointed to her present office, Miss Bassett has been prominently identified with the school children of Washington and the States of her division. She has visited every city and town in the three States and has won innumerable friends in educational circles by her talents as well as her charming personality.

Miss Bassett was born at Plymouth, Mass., where her family has lived for generations. She is a descendant of Peregrine White, the first white child born in the famous colony, who married a Bassett while on her mother's side, Anne Rogers, who came over on the Mayflower, is also an ancestor.

Miss Bassett is a graduate of Brown University and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity. She lives at the College Club, 1322 I street. No date has been set for the wedding, but it is understood that it will take place this fall.

Babies Will Receive.

Mrs. Charles W. Pitts and the ladies of the board of managers of the Florence Crittenton Mission will be at home to friends of the mission at 218 Third street northwest tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock. Tea will be served, and the babies will hold a reception in the nursery. It is hoped that all interested in the work of the institution will take this opportunity to see the home, meet the directors, and make the acquaintance of the babies.

There will be a business meeting of the medical corps branch of the army emergency committee at Mrs. M. W. Ireland's apartment in the Wyoming tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Gen. and Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver and Miss Marion L. Oliver are in their house, 1767 Q street, for the winter.

The Cooties Are Coming!

25c Hooray! Hooray! 25c
The Cooties Are Here! HOORAY!

Better game than "Pigs in Clover." Little but Mighty. Looks small when you first see it, but, Oh, Boy!—like the real Cooties it's going to grow on you! And how they soon will multiply! You're going to see them every place. You might as well decide today to get your Cooties early.

—Cooties is a Game—A little game that looks innocent and unassuming. You pick it up and start to corral those four little black "cooties" in that nice little wire cage, where they belong. They won't go! Well, we'll show them. We'll make them go. There now, go in. He didn't. Wait a minute—I'll get him. Almost had him then. Ah! There he is—not! No, you fellows can't have this box—I'm going to get those cooties if it takes me the rest of the summer. Cootie Parties are all the rage. Give a Cootie Party.

—That's the way "Cooties" acts on man, or woman or the kids. Start them on a Cootie hunt and the small details of the universe can wait. That's the reason Cooties are making a big hit. They are going BIG.
